

Enjoy
Healthy!

This year, we are excited to introduce our new, low-sugar organic chocolate collection!

With taste, health, and a love of chocolate in mind, VCL Cocoa Innovation is always cooking up something new and exciting in our kitchen! Take a look at a few of the delicious options we have available for your brand at the PLMA Trade Show in Chicago.

Meeting the highest standards

Proud to be GFSI Certified!

- GFSI certification benefits every member of the supply chain — from harvesters, all the way down to the consumer.
- Today's food savvy customer welcomes the knowledge and the obligation we have to food safety.
- We see certifications like GFSI as an essential way to ensure we stay on top of food safety regulations and requirements.

Our commitment to food safety, quality, and legality represents our support to all of our partners.
